Who Is the Mad Hatter?

The Mad Hatter is one of the most beloved characters in Lewis Carroll's Alice in Wonderland. He appears during the chaotic tea party with the March Hare and the Dormouse, where time is perpetually stuck at 6:00. Unlike the other characters, the Hatter is not simply a madman; he embodies curiosity, nonconformity, and an unquenchable love for the absurd. Carroll's choice of the word "mad" was a deliberate nod to the real world "mad hatter" syndrome, a condition that afflicted hat makers in the 1800s who suffered mercury poisoning. By blending a historical reference with a fictional persona, Carroll created a character that is both a product of his time and a timeless symbol of creative freedom.

The character's refusal to conform to the rigid expectations of society also speaks to anyone who feels out of place or misunderstood.
